PRIZE ESSAYS.

First Prize $300; Second Prize $75; Third Prize $25.

The late Dea. Philo Carpenter, of Chicago, left in trust with his two surviving daughters, Mrs. W. W. Cheney and the late Mrs. Edward Hildreth, a fund "to be used at their discretion, in opposition to * * secret societies." Before the decease of Mrs. Hildreth, it had been decided to use a portion of this fund for securing the best manuscripts obtainable discussing the evils of secret associations touching the obligations of good citizenship, and especially Christian citizenship; the execution of this purpose to be committed to the New England Christian Association, and carried out under the direction of its secretary, Rev. James P. Stoddard. It is in pursuance of this end that the following prizes are offered, viz.:

For the best manuscript, as above noted, on "Secrecy and

Citizenship,"	$300.00
For the next best,	75.00
For the third,	25.00

The prizes to be awarded by competent, disinterested and impartial judges chosen by the trustee of the above mentioned fund, and having the full approval of the New England Christian Association. Manuscripts submitted to be type-written, with type-written word or number for identification, corresponding to a like word or number upon a sealed envelope containing the name and address of the writer, for identification by the judges after their decision, and to be sent in not later than Jan. 1, 1897. While restricting the writers to no precise limits, it is desirable that the manuscripts do not exceed 15,000 words. It will be understood that the ownership of copyright of prize manuscripts will rest with the trustee, and that as regards all others the right of purchase on terms mutually agreed upon is reserved, as is that of declining, should the judges so decide, any and all manuscripts, and of extension of the time limit.

All letters of inquiry should be addressed to REV. JAMES P. STODDARD, Sec'y N. E. Christian Association, 218 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.
